Desk Drop

FOR OFFICE AND WORKPLACE MANAGERS

Prepared for Northwind Architecture Studio

Vetted emerging snacks and drinks, free, roughly monthly.

You pick the categories and can veto anything. All we ask: on the shelf the day it arrives, one photo, and three questions for your team.

PROPOSED FIRST DROP week of Mon 2027-01-11, on a Tuesday or Wednesday morning.

What you get

- ✓ One to three vetted emerging brands per drop, free, roughly monthly as supply allows.
- ✓ Only the categories you choose, and a veto on any brand.
- ✓ One contact. Deliveries on Tuesday or Wednesday mornings, in your receiving window.
- ✓ A display card, so your team knows what it is and what is in it.
- ✓ Your team's feedback, summarized for you after each drop.

What we ask

- ✓ A named pantry owner and a receiving window.
- ✓ On the shelf within one business day of delivery.
- ✓ Two photos: the pantry the day you place it, the card and product on day 3 or 5.
- ✓ One Slack or email post of the survey link; five or more responses.
- ✓ A ten-minute debrief, and your Tuesday headcount.

Never asked of you: payment, employees' contact details, exclusivity, or storing anything beyond the drop.

How a drop works

1. A short intake form: categories, vetoes, Tuesday headcount, receiving window.
2. We propose a brand. You approve it by reply, or veto it.
3. A Tuesday or Wednesday morning: one labeled case and a display card arrive.
4. Five business days later the survey closes, and you get your team's feedback.

What your team sees: the brand, who makes it, a QR code for three questions, the allergen statement word for word from the package, and where to buy it nearby.

What is in the case

- Sealed, individually packaged, shelf-stable, labeled with ingredients and allergens.
- Never alcohol, cannabis or CBD, supplements, anything refrigerated or needing preparation, or health claims.

Your team's privacy

No personal data about your employees. The survey is anonymous: no login, no email. An optional newsletter box, unticked, sends an email to the brand only if someone ticks it.

Founding offices

- ✓ Your first drop in the week named above, with a brand you approved.
- ✓ Named on the founding roster only if you say yes.
- ✓ Veto and category profile, changeable any time.
- ✓ Leave any time with a week's notice.

What you sign: a one-page participation agreement listing what each side commits to. No fees either way.

Next step: reply with a yes and I will send the intake form, or pick 15 minutes for a call.
